

Mark Twain on Slavery

A Living History Event

Authentic in Every Detail All from the Pen of Mark Twain

This show entertains in typical Twain style but also moves to the serious side as Sam Clemens tackles the issue of slavery. In his own words, Clemens tells of his experiences and the characters who shaped his understanding of slavery from his days in Hannibal to his world-wide fame. Full of stories and anecdotes from Uncle Daniel to the adventures of Huck and Jim, this show reveals the Mark Twain you never knew. This live theater show has been performed to great reviews in over forty states and Canada.

1ST PERFORMANCE..... $400

2ND PERFORMANCE $300

ALL DAY PRICE $800

“WITH GREAT AFFECTION TO YOU FOR KEEPING MARK TWAIN ALIVE.”

—New York

“IT WAS FUN TO STEP BACK 150 YEARS. GREAT JOB!”

—Minnesota

FOR MORE SHOW INFORMATION VISIT WWW.ELSENETERPRODUCTIONS.COM

WILL HELP SATISFY STATE REQUIREMENTS IN
Literature/History/Political Science | 3 - Adult | Theme Based or Pure Entertainment

ELSENETER PRODUCTIONS 109 WEST 7TH, NEW LONDON, MO 63459 • 217-335-3338